WASCO UNION HIGH SCHOOL

Presents . . .

Panorama of California

Dear Reader,

An annual portrays school activities in picture and writing. This 1965 Wasconian depicts the history of the past school year within the theme "Panorama of California." Our theme was chosen to enhance the beauty of the book. The pages that divide each section represent scenic spots in our state. Although the division pages are the most obvious examples of Panorama, we have tried to make our theme evident on each page throughout the book.

My special thanks go to:

Mr. Appel, for careful supervision.

Mr. Clement, for silk screening the end sheets.

Brenda Schroeder, for designing the end sheets.

Mr. Rexius, for a lot of hard work.

The faculty, for putting up with me.

All coaches, for their patience.

The advertisers, for their support.

Thanks again,

BEV

MR. CUTNER, Principal

The parents and friends of Wasco High can be very proud of the accomplishments made this year in scholarship, leadership, sportsmanship, forensics, and athletics. We are all justifiably proud of the Wasconian editor, staff, and advisor for the excellent recording of this year's activities. It is our hope that this fine example of good work will provide the incentive for greater effort and achievement on the part of all students in the future.

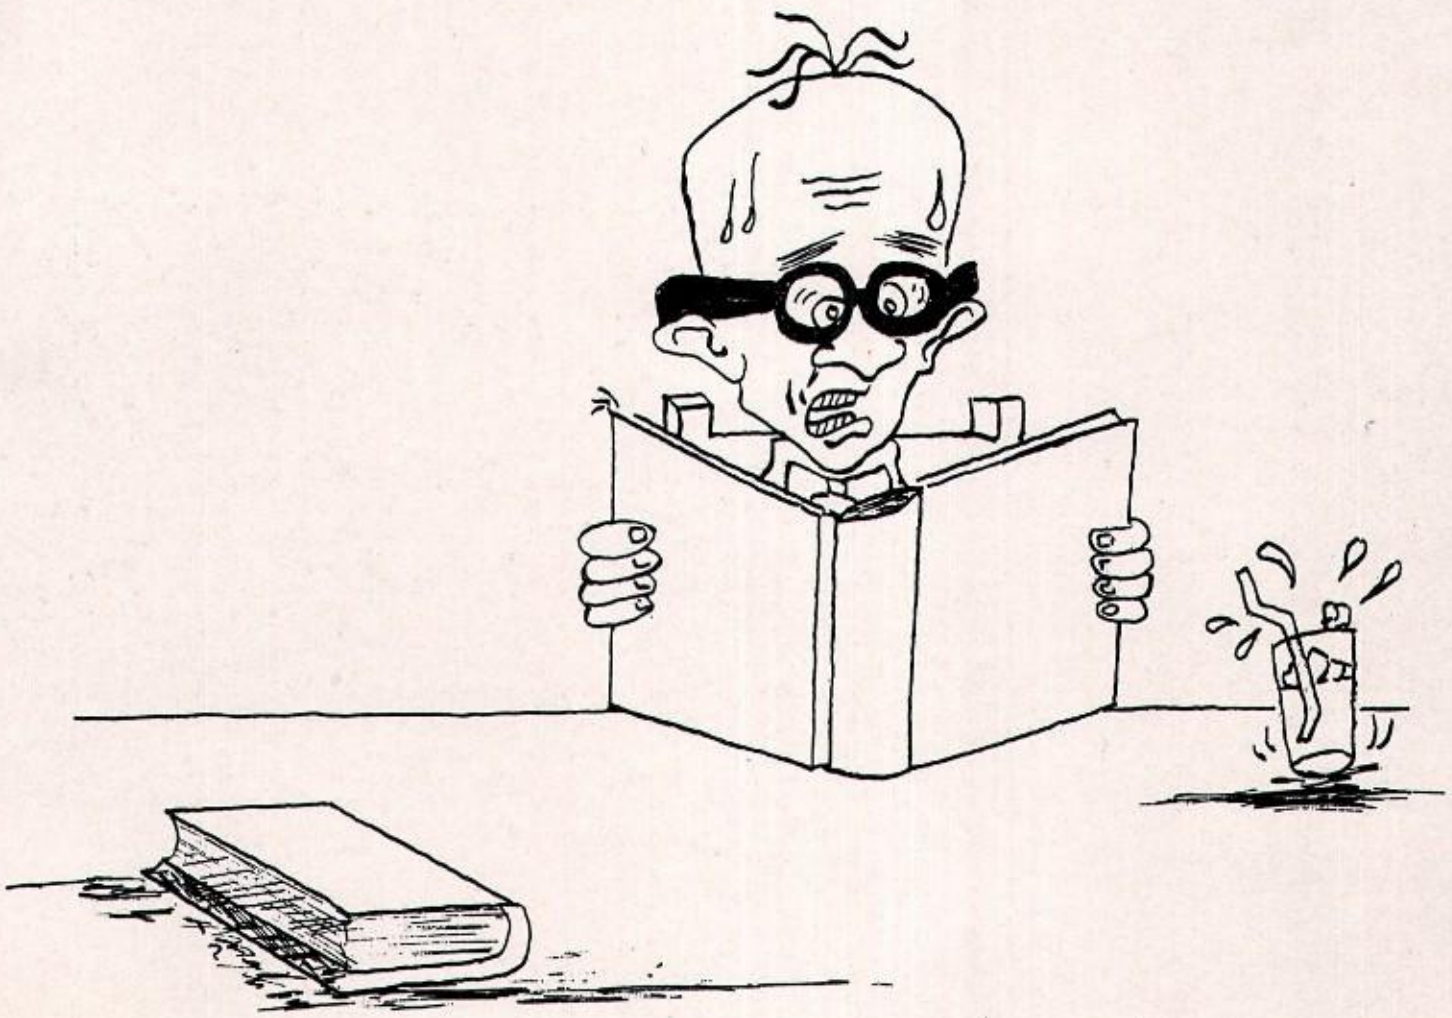
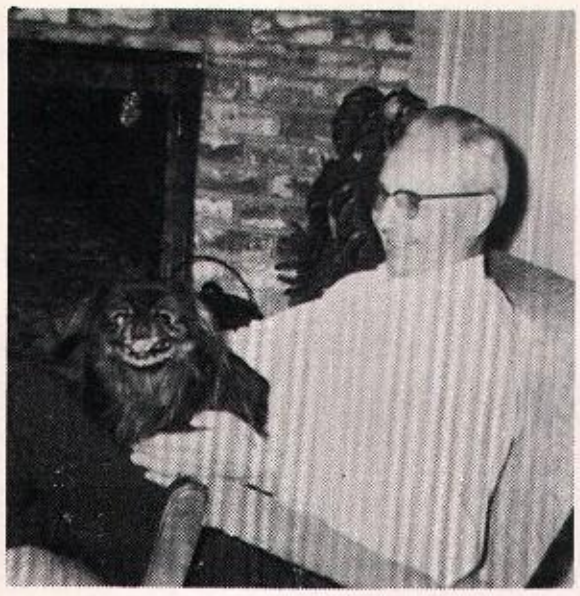
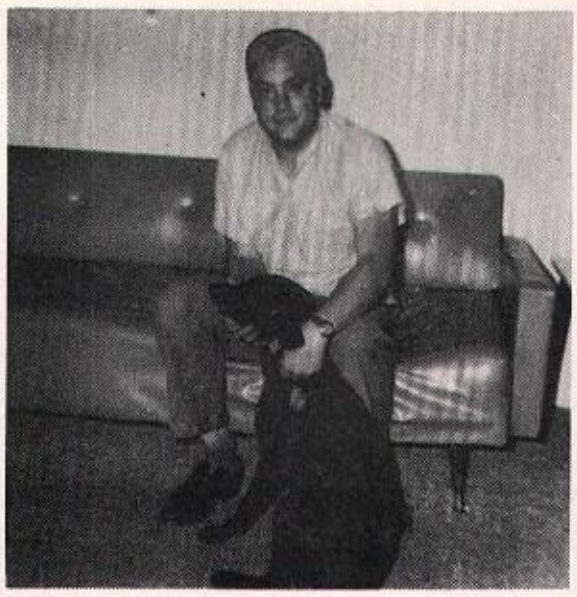
FACULTY



"I can't believe it!"



Enjoy yourself, Mr. Appel. You'll have a difficult day in English IV.



Mr. Bangs, be happy; your dog is.

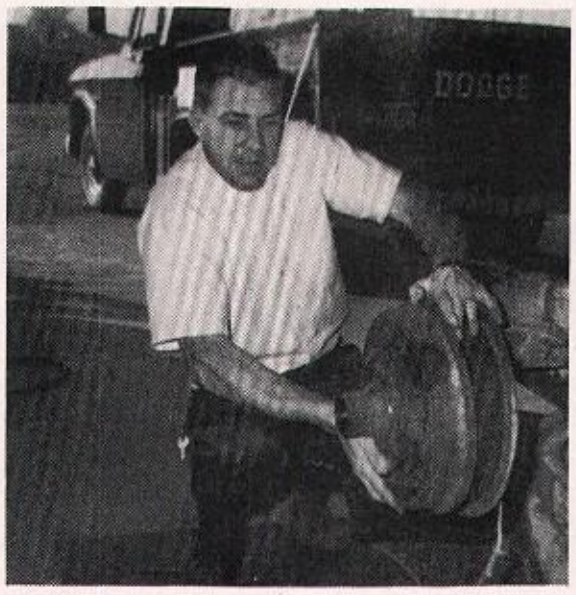
Miss Boatz plays soft music while correcting algebra papers.

An assiduous worker, Mr. Boggess is contructing a mountain resort home.

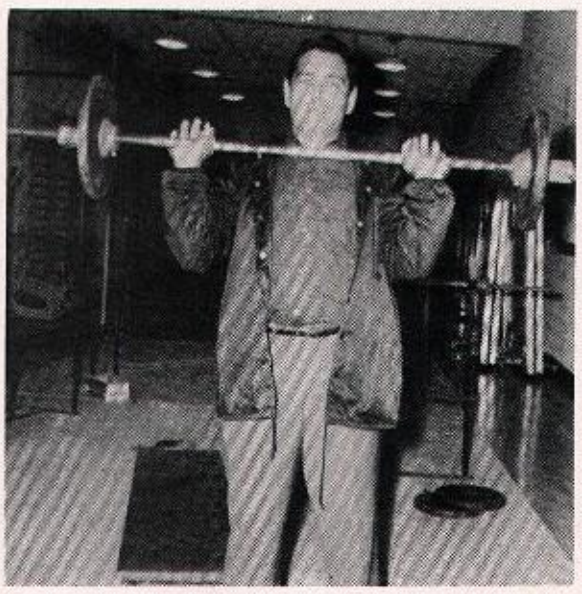
Mr. Burtner's young sons are fine football potential.

A set, Miss Chandler?

A talented person, Mr. Clement exhibits his silk-screening ability.

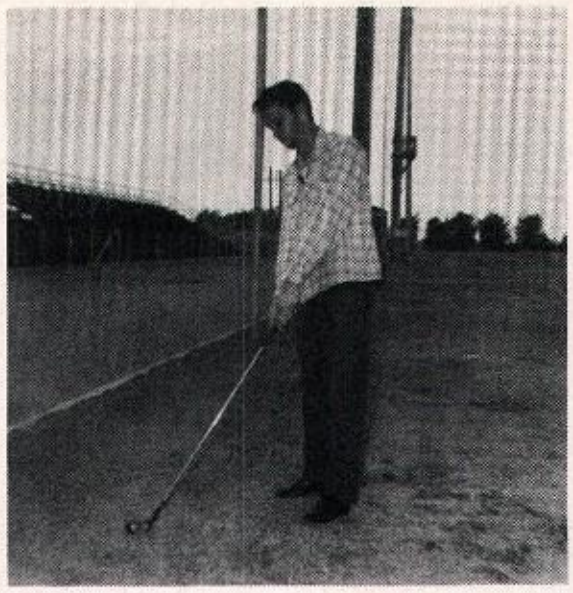


Get it on straight, Mr. Craig.



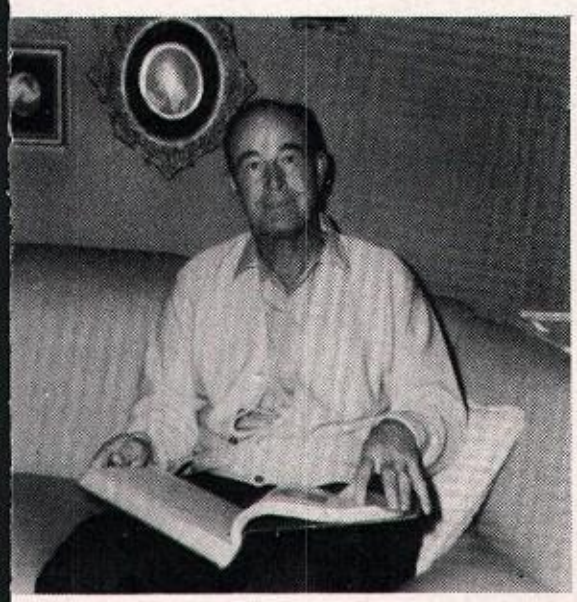
Click! Now you can set it down, Mr. Darby.

Miss DeFoe views programs on TV in miniature.



Here we see Mr. Dillingham teeing off the 15-yard line.

Hope there are no bills, Mr. Ellis!



Mr. Gilmer, did we catch you unexpectedly?

Miss Goerne must be plotting a jaunt to Germany.

Students sure can make Mr. Harrington tired.

What a dignified tennis outfit, Mr. Hobson!

Is that a house dog, Mrs. Jacobsen?

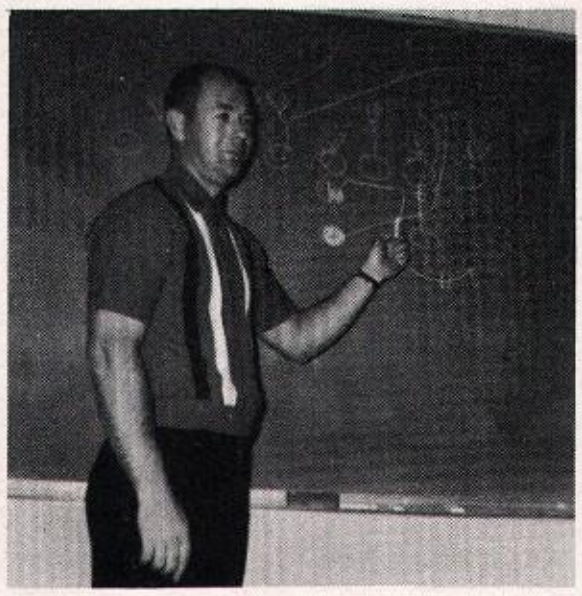
Quiet evenings with his little princess are enjoyed by Mr. Johnson.

What's the joke, Mr. Johnston?

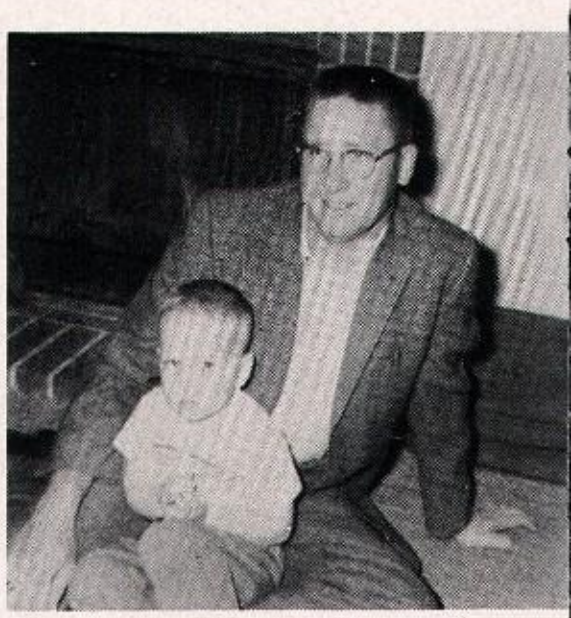
Your dog appears timid, Mrs. Leonard.

Miss Lewis' gardening prowess created this beautiful rose.

Mr. Mendenhall pores over a most interesting book.



Running over the plays before the big game, Mr. Mills checks the intellectual powers of his B squad.

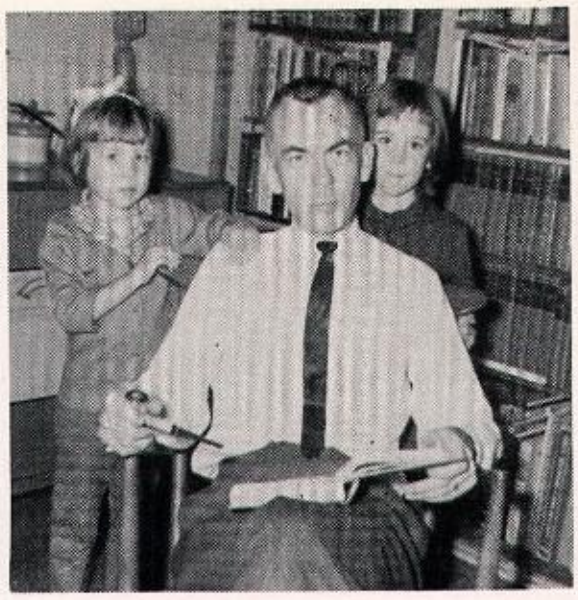


Mr. Parker's son, the star basketball player of 1975.

MacTavish, Mr. Parrott's black scotty, craves attention.

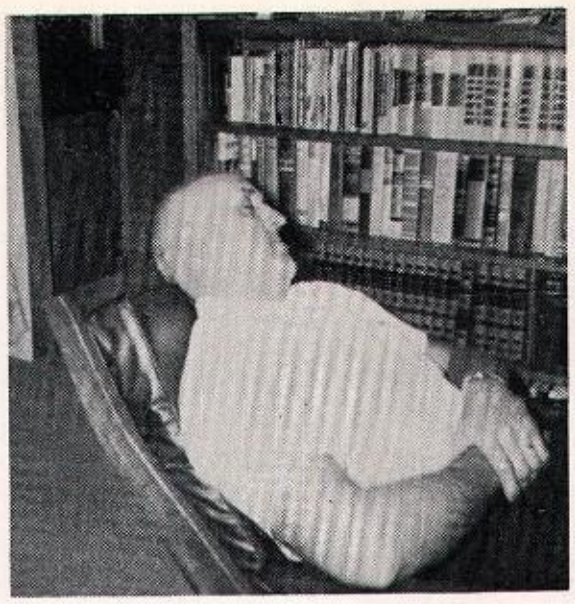
Really, Mrs. Penner, golf in your living room?

Relaxing in his easy chair, Mr. Proctor enjoys a good mystery.



Cute aren't they — Mr. Saindon's pride and joy.

Salve atque vale!
J.E. Saindon



Nighty-nite, Mr. Sears.

Aha! Miss Sell finally came to a stop.

Remember that quotation, Miss Skarphol.

A shutterbug at heart—Mr. Smith.

Mrs. Sorenson's creative hands arranged this attractive centerpiece.

Better hurry to assemble the trailer, Mr. Spilsbury, the boys need it.

Does Mr. Sutcliffe practice his golfing technique between classes?

Caught Mr. Thiessen eating leaves again.

Everyone can plainly see Mrs. Trandem's pre-occupation is little Michael.

Browsing over the metal shop implements, Mr. Traywick readies for morning class.

Chef Wilkins cooks up a storm!

Don't get your wires crossed, Mr. Wallace.

Where's the golf ball, Mr. Wise?

To her two small sons, Mrs. Wolfe reads fairy stories.

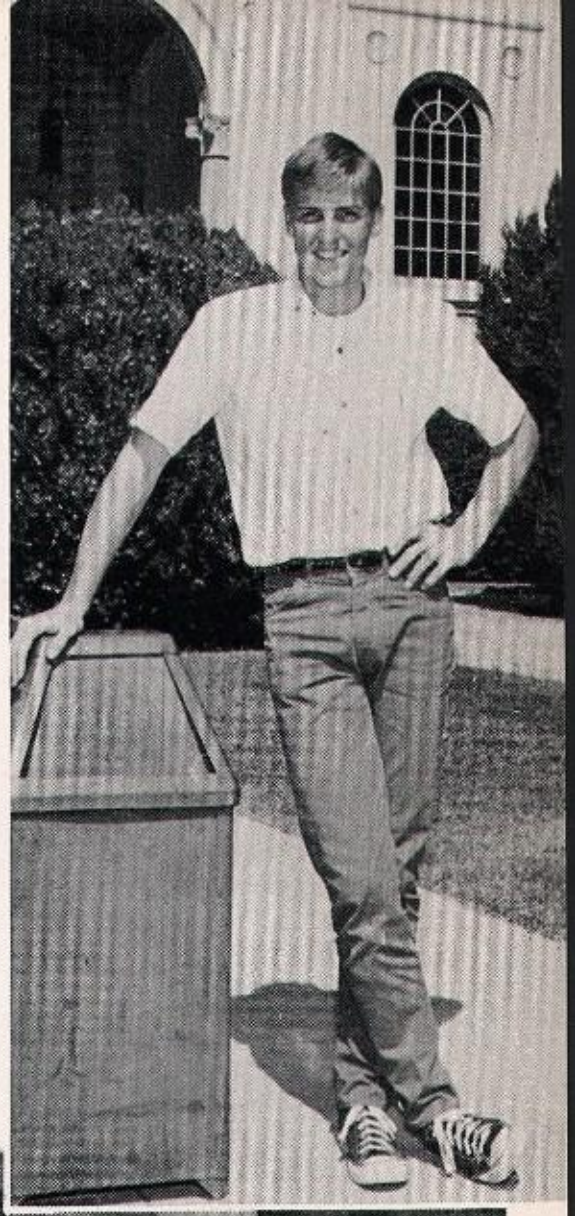
Officers

First Semester: L. Carpenter, treasurer; D. Voth, vice president; J. Peters, secretary.

Students of Wasco High,

I have thoroughly enjoyed representing you as student body president. Your school spirit and cooperation have been really great. This attitude makes a school a "winner." Keep up the good work for a successful year!

Bob Linker



Second Semester: G. Ketelsen, vice president; S. Cummins, treasurer; L. Gross, secretary.

Fellow Students,

I have enjoyed my term of office and the many pleasant memories it has brought about. I have endeavored to serve you well.

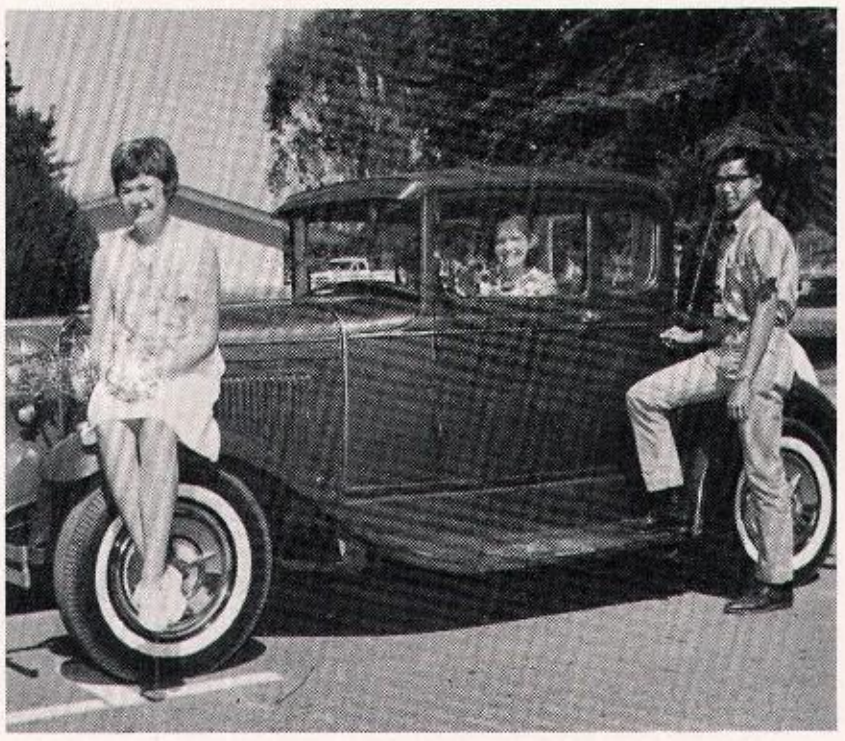
Jim Summers

Graduates of '65

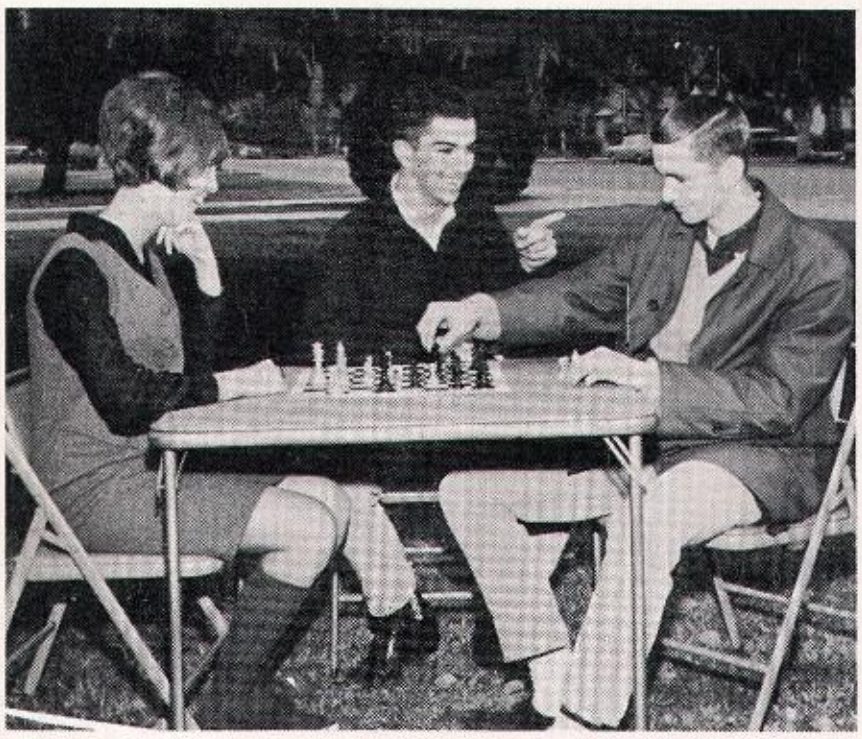
Class of '65,

My thanks and appreciation for your loyal support go with my wish for a bright future for every one of you. I was honored to be your president and proud of your achievements.

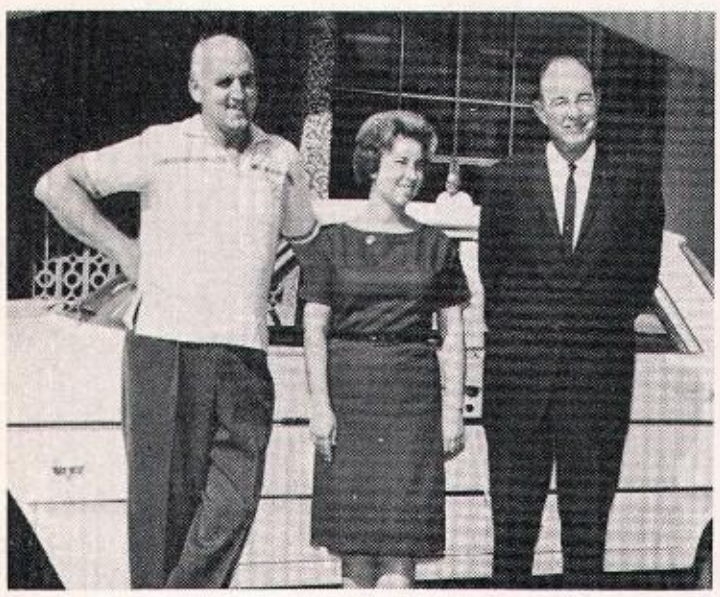
Craig Noble



First Semester: J. Prueitt, treasurer; B. Bartel, secretary; V. Wong, vice president.



Second Semester: A. Struempf, secretary; J. Sumners, vice president; M. Albert, treasurer.

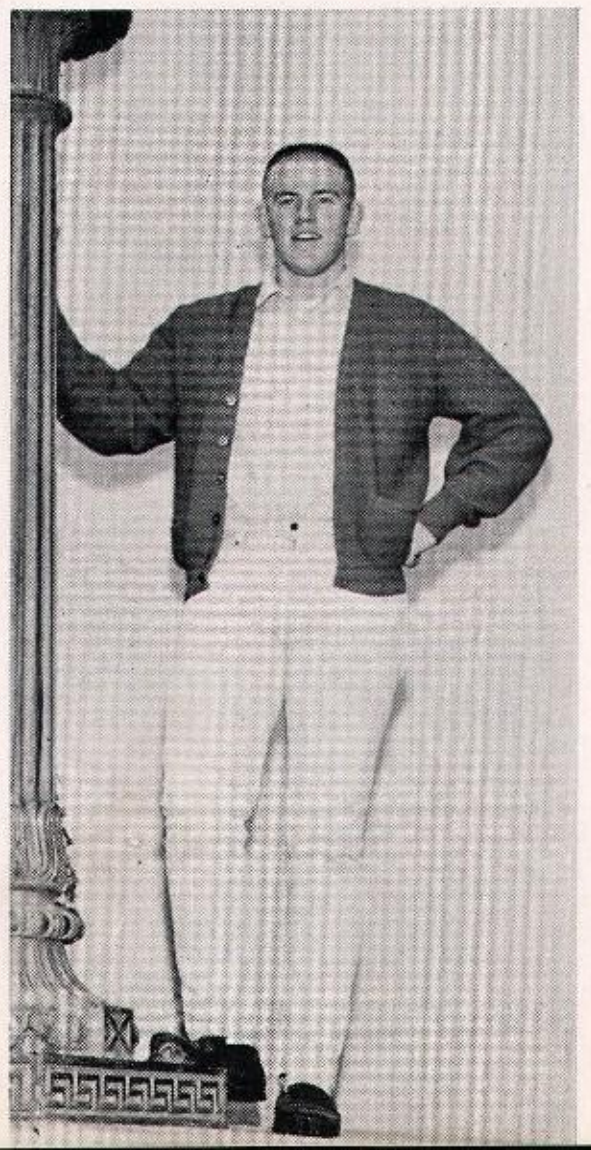


Mr. Sears, Miss Sell, Mr. Gilmer, advisors.

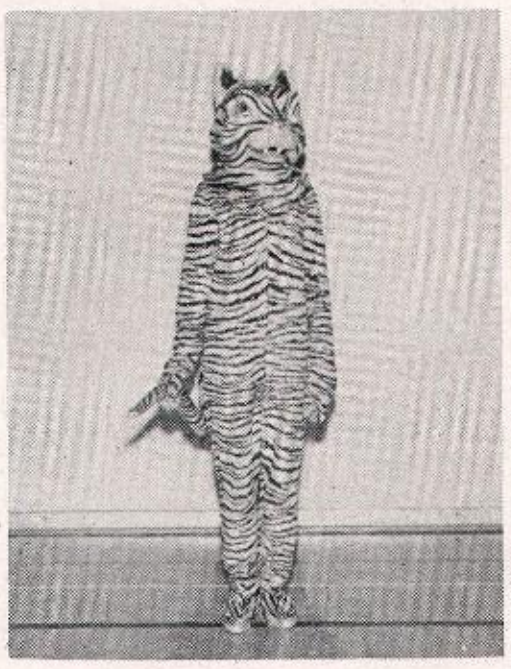
Seniors,

It was a great pleasure for me to be able to represent the mighty senior class during the second semester. I want to thank everyone who made this possible.

Jim Wilcox



Our 100% attendance on presidential election day indicates that we are responsible citizens.



Who's masquerading as Tillie now?

Wasco High challenges England.

With all that assistance no wonder our class captured first place!

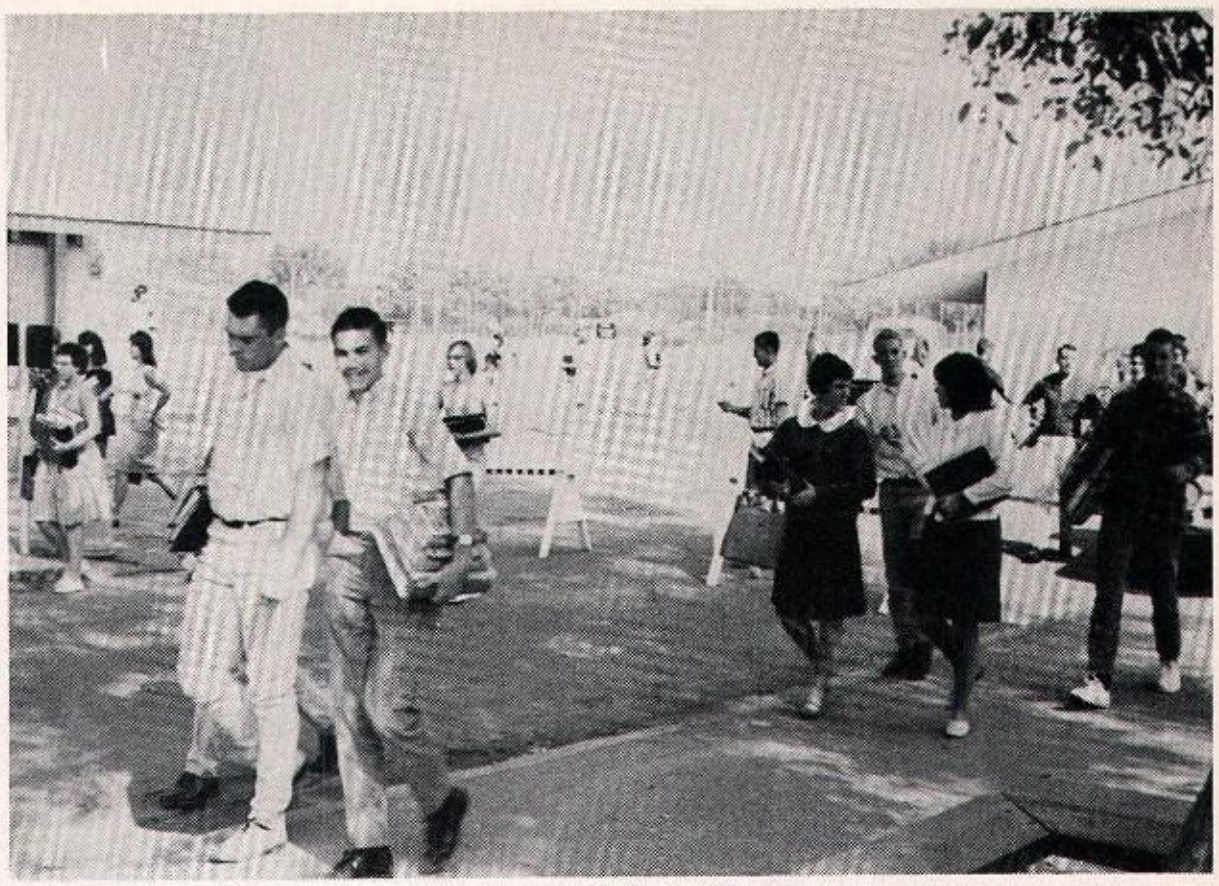
Juniors



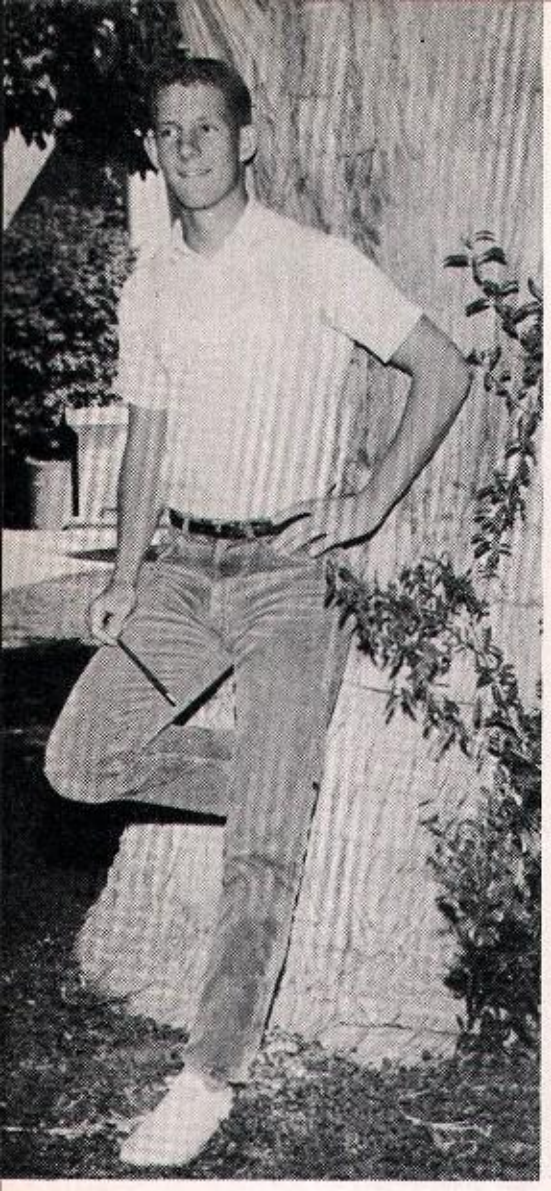
How was your U.S. History class today?

Once in a lifetime.

I could have danced all night.

Who will make the first bid?

Big Whigs of This Outfit!



Juniors,

This year has helped us to envision our goals and dreams for the future. We look forward to the partial achievements of these goals in our final year at Wasco High.

Carl H. Smith

First Semester: J. Merritt, treasurer; C. Coodey, vice president; S. Bartel, secretary.

Second Semester: S. Rorick, treasurer; B. Rinker, secretary; K. Gaston, vice president.

Miss Chandler, advisor; Mrs. Jacobsen, counselor; Mr. Johnston, counselor; Mr. Thiessen, advisor; Mr. Hobson, advisor.

Class,

I feel that the junior class has had a most successful school year, in gaining knowledge and progressing on the path to maturity. Our class can look forward to a great senior year.

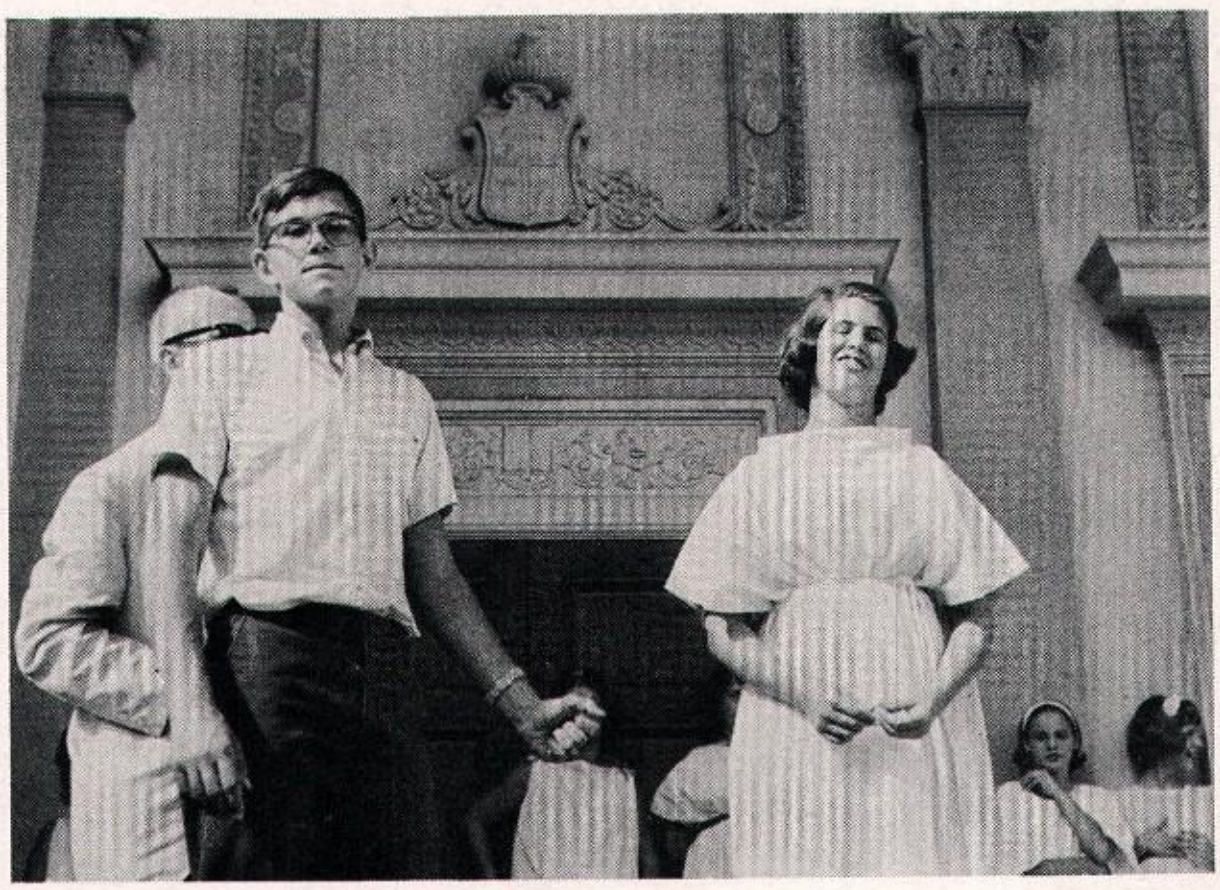
Frosh

A little small isn't it, girls?

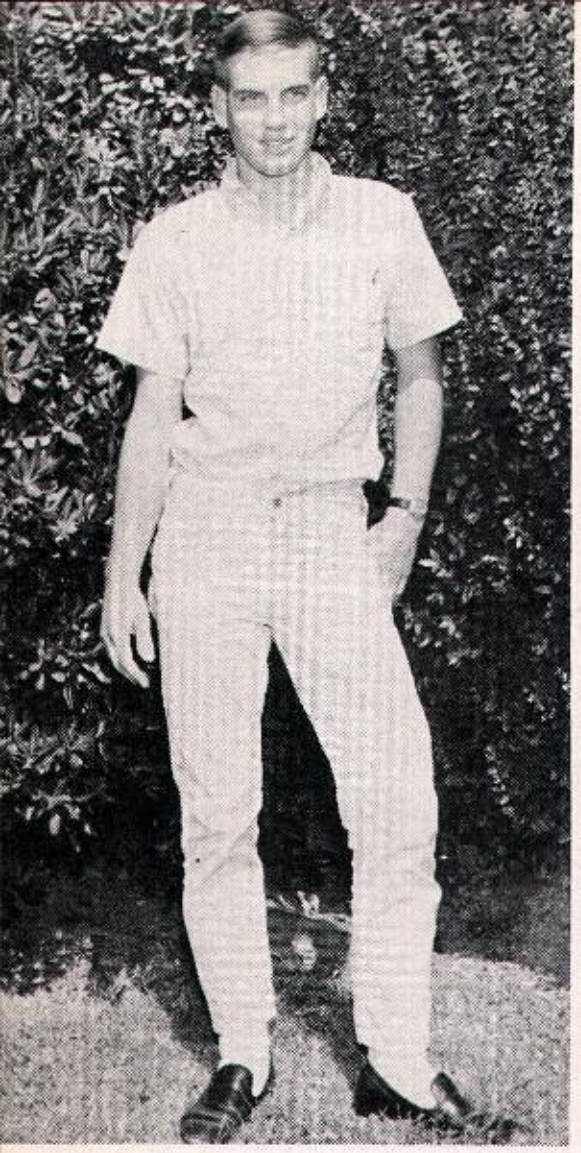
Determined to sell a slave.

Alla, great one.



Shy freshmen hide behind mighty juniors and seniors.

Frosh Leaders



Classmates,

It has been both a pleasure and an honor to act as your freshman president. During the first semester our class displayed a tremendous class and school spirit as shown by the rally results. May it continue throughout the year.

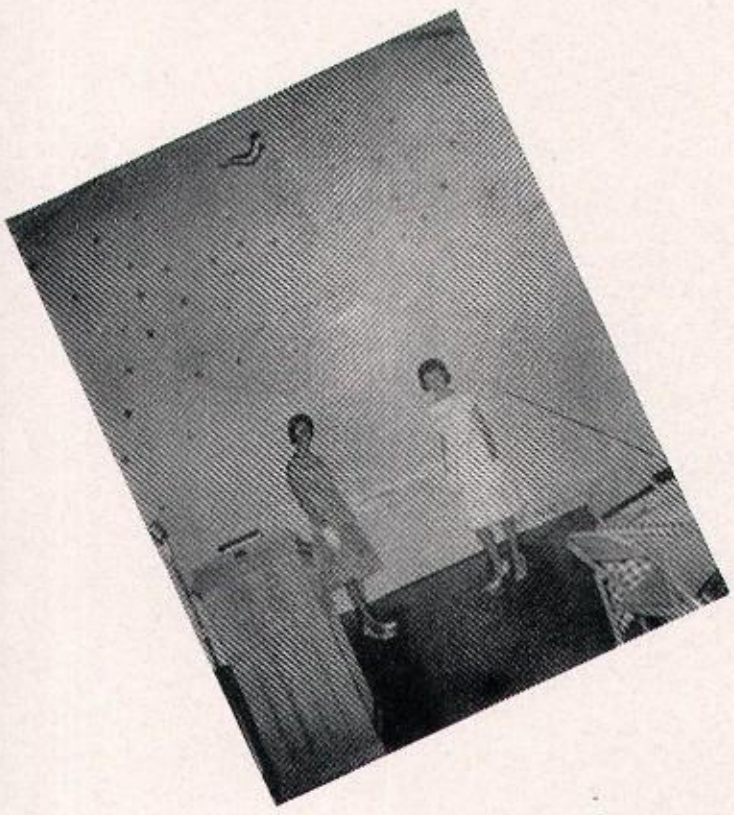
An Evening In Paris



Seniors, remember this night—"An Evening In Paris"—presented to the graduating class of 1964? The decorations were unforgettable. First to catch the eye was the beautiful gold Eiffel tower. Under it were the streets of Paris highlighted by colorful flower carts. We ate by candlelight in quaint French cafes at tables with checkered table cloths and miniature champagne poppers. After a fabulous dinner, we danced the night away at the prom with music by the "Sensations." It was truly a lovely evening in the gay city of Paris.

Music, soft lights, and beautiful decorations transported lovely girls and their handsome escorts into a fantasy of "Our Winter Love." An atmosphere of manifest gaity and spirit surrounded the dancers on this gala evening. In the air could be heard whispered sighs as couples strolled back over the bridge to reality.

"Darling, this is Mr. McNish from the F.B.I."

"Howard, please just answer the question."

January 22 and the presentation of "Howie," a delightfully entertaining comedy about an educated misfit, marked the culmination of many nights of long and arduous rehearsals under the expert direction of Mr. Mendenhall. Exhuberant excitement and expectancy reigned throughout the evening for both audience and cast. An amusing plot and commendable acting were combined to create a most memorable play.

Here's the entire cast relaxing after practice.

On the evening of April 23, 1965, the juniors presented their class play, "Good Housekeeping." By the public it will be remembered as an evening of delightful entertainment in which pandemonium resulted when a mother decided to make her family psychologically happy; but to the cast, it will forever remain the climax of over two months of trying rehearsals. They will ever remember "the fun of performing a play and performing it well."

Rooters Club

To keep campus spirit at its peak is the responsibility of the Song and Rooters Club. Because of this lively group and Mr. Wise, their advisor, programs are distributed during the football season, ribbons are sold to the students, the goal posts are decorated for home games, and there are organized rallies in which the four classes participate. No one can doubt that Wasco High has the most spirited and energetic student body around. The reason—the SRC, the pep-promoting club.

Developing self-expression, assurance, and perceptive thinking are the underlying purposes and the ultimate goals of this organization. During this year the members have been confronted with these opportunities and have exploited them to the fullest. The fruits of their labor, the medals and certificates, testify to this achievement.

Veteran Takes on Tiger Rag

MARSHA MARTIN
First Semester
Tiger Rag Editor

Holding the editor's whip during the 1964-65 fall semester was Marsha Martin, a two-year man on the Tiger Rag staff. A competent student, she always met the deadline, but her many sleepless nights will be long remembered. Because Marsha endeavored to improve her papers, the quality and quantity of the TR grew during her term.

When she wasn't out taking pictures or yelling at the staff for late copy, the great editor could be seen driving an old Chevy pickup, racing toward the Jolly for a moment of refreshment before hurrying home to hit the chem and Latin books. Of course, there were always band practices and class or club meetings to occupy her spare time.

At the close of the semester Marsha relinquished her position to Betty Helman, a gal of great potential.

Helman Second Semester Chief

An active senior who participated in various extra-curricular activities became the second semester editor of the TR — capable Miss Betty Helman. Being the editor of our school newspaper wasn't a facile job. It meant meeting deadlines, writing last minutes scoops, and sacrificing that Saturday night movie to complete her dummy. Betty met all these requirements of her position with skill and patience. The excellent Tiger Rags issued during her reign exhibit this. Indeed the responsibility of the Tiger Rag's editorship was rightfully designated this spring semester.

BETTY HELMAN

Writers Busy

Write, write, write are the words most common to a group of 13 students that compose the staff of the Tiger Rag. We, the past editors, wish to express our sincere thanks to these members.

We appreciate you Barb Ladrigan, a prompt reporter; Rebecca Phillips, our poetess who will be blessed with the editorship next year; Gary Caldwell, the sports editor who is always a day late; Ron Brown, a guy who never misses D-Day; Terry Miller the wacky art editor; Joyce Simons, the befuddled business manager; Gloria Bray and Jane Struempf, the chief executors of the Song Dedication column; Jane McCallum, who is preparing for assault next year; Carol Trample, a new member to the staff — another poetess; and far-fetching Fred Sanchez.

Thanks kids, for being such a neat crew!

'Rag' Advisor

"Hey! Get busy and write. You, it's time to clean up the joint." These familiar comments, heard between the click, click of smoking typewriters could only be coming from Mr. Sutcliffe, the journalism advisor.

A fine teacher, he really has qualifications and experience. He attended the University of California at Berkeley, San Jose State, and UCLA and received his Master's in Education.

While a high school student, he launched and edited the San Mateo Bearcat and worked on the Daily Cal in college. Writing and editing the Gooney Gazette on Midway Island and the Barber's Point Puka in Honolulu were two of his other journalistic accomplishments before coming to Wasco. Presently, our advisor is engaged in the writing of an English workbook.

Saludos amigos y amigas!

The '64 -'65 Spanish Club year has been really great; any member can testify to this. The memorable dates on the calendar were December 22, March 6, March 19, March 24, and May 8.

Pinatas, pinatas galore--

A feature of the December 22 Christmas Party was a class contest to discover which group could assemble the fanciest pinata. From the competing presentations the yellow chick, constructed by the freshman class, 5th period, captured first place. The reward for their efforts was that they were sole heirs to the abundance of candy within the pinata. Among the other activities was the livesaver and toothpick game. After refreshments were served, the party was ended.

The student body invited--

A success in previous years, a dinner-dance which was open to everyone was again scheduled March 6. The Spanish-inspired decorations, a delicious buffet supper, and music by the Emeralds contributed to a wonderful evening of pleasure and enjoyment.

Beans and Sloppy Joes served--

The highlight of the Spanish Gym Party, March 19, was the appetizing food—beans and Sloppy Joes. Everyone consumed the refreshments with eagerness, for nothing could have tasted better after strenuous games of ping-pong, volleyball, basketball and, oh yes, the trampoline!

Tijuana Palace--

From the first glance at the colorful peacock to the last glimpse of Shafter's exchange student, Marlove Quadros, the Spanish Club Assembly, held March 24, proved to be the best one yet. The variety show consisted of commercials, skits, and musical renditions.

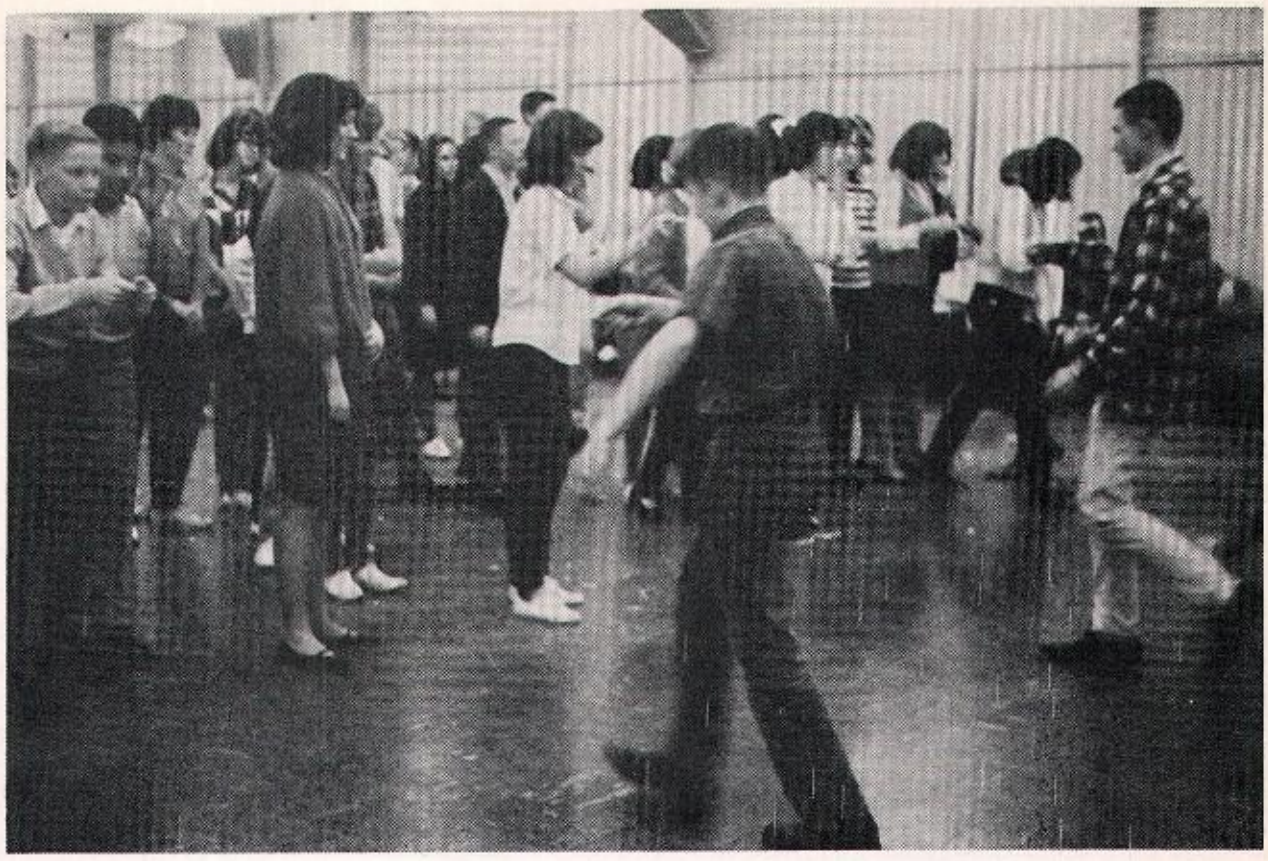
Spanish Banquet--

The final gathering of the club's season, the Spanish Banquet proved to be a tremendous success. Following the dinner, a dance long to be remembered was held.

"Bang!"

"Whack!"

"Germs!"



Hurry and don't you dare drop it!

It's not a fight!
It's a scramble
for candy!

It broke!
Everybody dive in!

T. N. T.

Industrious is the word which best describes the teachers of now and tomorrow. Imbued with a desire to instruct pre-school children at the local labor camp, TNT'ers helped Spanish children learn the English language. The group soon discovered that by assisting others they gained experience for their future profession and satisfaction in knowing their aid was needed, wanted, and appreciated.

Ever noticed the aroma which permeates the entire science building? The FHA girls, the "Mrs." of the future, are preparing for their vocation. Under the guidance of Mrs. Trandem they learn to bake desserts, prepare meals, and even sew their own clothes and manage an efficient home. The members' culinary skills are displayed to the local students at their many cake sales; their knack as seamstresses is shown by the apparel they wear. The Future Homemakers of America—a mighty good group.

FFA Story

Over 400 people—Future Farmers, parents, and friends—attended the 25th annual Wasco Future Farmers Parents and Friends Banquet at the high school cafeteria for the presentation of annual awards.

Darrell Voth was judged the Wasco Star Chapter Future Farmer, and with it he won the privilege of presenting his mother, Mrs. Loren Voth, FFA Mother of the Year, with an orchid corsage and a choice wool blanket. Voth is an applicant for the degree of State Farmer, the highest award presented by the state association.

John Tracy, chapter president, won the California Bankers Association certificate as the top Future Farmer of the year. This was presented by Mr. James Mack, manager of the local Security First National Bank. Dr. Glenn C. Hallock, president of the Wasco Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture, was saluted as Senior Citizen, and Mr. Robert L. Nelson, past president of the FFA, as Junior Citizen. The presentation was made by Mr. Paul D. Spilsbury, head of the Agriculture Department.

New Honorary Members of the Wasco FFA Chapter were Mr. Elmer Burrows, a member of the custodial staff and a long-time friend of the FFA; and Mr. Otto Klitgaard, Central California Traction Railway official for Sacramento. Mr. Klitgaard has been a friend of the Wasco FFA for many years. He is a member of the Golden Bears of the California State Fair and has been especially helpful in transporting the FFA exhibits from Stockton to the state fairgrounds.

Presented to Ronald Tackitt, by bank manager Mr. Dick Gross, was the Bank of America Award as the Most Improved Future Farmer. Other awards went to Jerry Tackitt, DeKalb Award; Kevin Mehlberg, Star Greenhand; John Tracy, Public Speaking; Gary Branum, Livestock; Terrell Newcomb, Farm Mechanics; Carey Long, Crops; and Billy Flynn, a special FFA Shorthorn Championship award.

Larry Hill, past president, received a State Farmer key from Mr. Charles Craig. Hill is the 44th from Wasco to receive the gold key of State Farmer.

Ronald Henson, FFA graduate now at Bakersfield College, received the Kern County Equipment Company award as the FFA graduate making the best record in college.

Mrs. Reta Fry presented her annual cash scholarship to Gary Hill, who is now enrolled at Cal Poly. This is the fifth award by Mrs. Fry, an Honorary Member of the FFA and Senior Citizen of the Year in 1960.

Ronald Cain was presented with the Kiwanis gilt by Mr. Fred George, president of the Wasco Kiwanis Club.

Mr. Charles Craig, FFA advisor, presented past president pins to Tracy and Dwayne Hill.

Stan Voth and his father, Mr. Mervyn Voth, received the Breakiron trophy presented by Dr. Arthur S. Breakiron, who came down from Fresno to make the award.

Miss Karen Hively received the Chapter Sweetheart jacket and pendant as Miss Sharon Galloway, last year's sweetheart, looked on.

During the banquet the tables were turned as Mrs. Fry asked for a few moments' time at the microphone. She reported that Mr. Spilsbury had spent most of his life paying tribute to others and that she, for one, would like to give special recognition to him. At this announcement, the entire audience stood and gave Mr. Spilsbury a standing ovation.

Before the excitement died down, Mrs. Sterling Grant, representative of the FFA alumni, stepped forward, donned Mrs. Fry's hat and announced that Mrs. Spilsbury also deserved much recognition for her efforts during the past years.

Tracy was outstanding as Master of Ceremonies; he presented his prize-winning speech, "Why Price Supports," as part of the program. Music was provided by the FFA alumni band known as the "Four Saints and an Angel." The invocation was given by Stan Voth and the pledge of allegiance to the flag was led by Gordon Bell. Kevin Mehlberg introduced the creed and emblem, and Dwayne Hill, past president, gave the speech of welcome.

Three of the chapter members and one chapter advisor were auctioned off as slaves at the conclusion of the banquet. Proceeds from the sale will be used to send a boy back to Kansas City to the National Convention. Buyers were Mr. Cecil Tracy, Buttonwillow; Mrs. Fred George, Wasco; Mr. Loren Voth, Wasco; and Mr. Tilton Tracy, Buttonwillow.

Members of the Wasco Chapter FFA had an outstanding year, winning the Salyer Grain & Milling trophy for Sweepstakes in Farm Mechanics at the State Fair, and the Sweepstakes trophy, outstanding exhibit trophy, and the grooming and appearance of exhibits trophy at the Kern County Fair. Wasco buyers gave the Wasco exhibitors wonderful support in the sale of prime and choice market animals at the auction sale.

The Swift & Company trophy for the best exhibit was won at the Great Western Livestock Show where Danny Blythe had Grand Champion pen of three market steers, Dwayne Hill had Reserve Grand Champion Pen of three steers, Danny Boyett had the Reserve Champion FFA market hog, and Jerry Tackitt had Reserve Grand Champion Pen of three market hogs, while the chapter exhibited the Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion Carloads of market steers in the Open Division.

At the various fairs during the past year a total of 389 prize ribbons were won: 92 at the California State Fair, 180 at the Kern County Fair, and 117 at the Great Western.

A Christmas party was attended by a large number of Future Farmers and their FHA guests.

Tracy emceed the annual FFA Assembly and teamed up with Long to present an entertaining and informative skit entitled "Dr. Confusion Answers Questions for Anyone."

Tracy placed second in the sectional FFA speaking contest, and the chapter placed third in the Kern County parliamentary procedure contest.

Dwayne Hill won the highly coveted trip to Kansas City to the National FFA Convention which this year included a mule pack trip to the bottom of the Grand Canyon as a side attraction.

Winners in the annual project competition sponsored by the United California Bank were Dwayne Hill, Gary Branum, and Danny Blythe.

Mr. Paul D. Spilsbury was honored by the California Farm Bureau for 30 years of service as Vocational Agriculture instructor and Mr. Charles H. Craig was elected secretary of the San Joaquin region of the California Agriculture Teachers Association.

Paulo D. I. M. Varchavtchik

(Our A.F.S. Student)

Dear Student Body,

I had one of the happiest moments of my life when I knew that I was chosen by A.F.S. to come to Wasco and to be a student of Wasco High. I will never forget this wonderful year. I liked everything here—the comprehension of the teachers, the friendship of the students, the sports events, the beautiful trees on campus . . . I will miss very much this school and all these people that were my friends.

I hope my stay in Wasco contributed a little bit toward the better understanding between the people of the United States and Brazil. Thank you for everything you have done for me.

Paulo

Paulo escorted Marlove Cuadros, Shafter's A.F.S. student, to our Spanish club party.

When arriving, Paulo was greeted by his new family — Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Neufeld, Bob and Diane.

Dear Paulo,

The lives of 850 students have been enriched by your stay in Wasco. Through you we have gained a vast knowledge of Brazil's history, geography, and people; but more important, we have met you, Paulo, our friend forever. Your memorable visit has formed an infinite bond between our two countries.

We were happy to be your host.

Hey band, remember the many times we played during the football games? Boy, nothing could be worse than holding a cold instrument while marching on a half-frozen field . . . Sure worked hard to get money to travel to Disneyland before the All-State Band Review at Long Beach—but it was fun! We came home with a third-place trophy, too! This year has been a hectic one, but we proved we're one of the busiest, hard-working, fun-loving groups at Wasco High.

Varsity

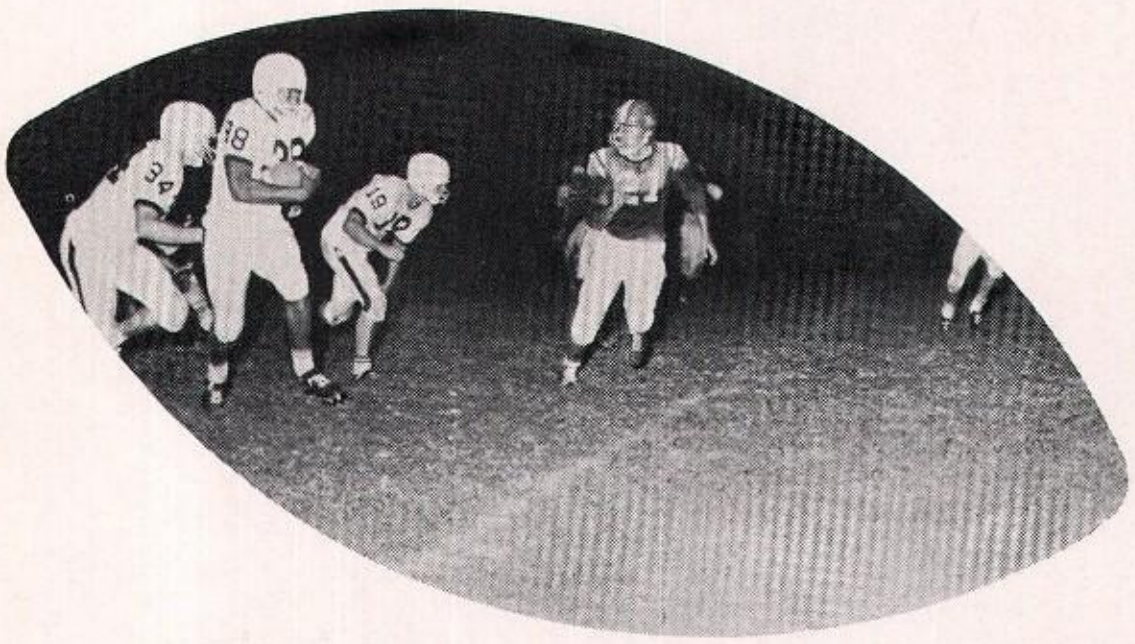
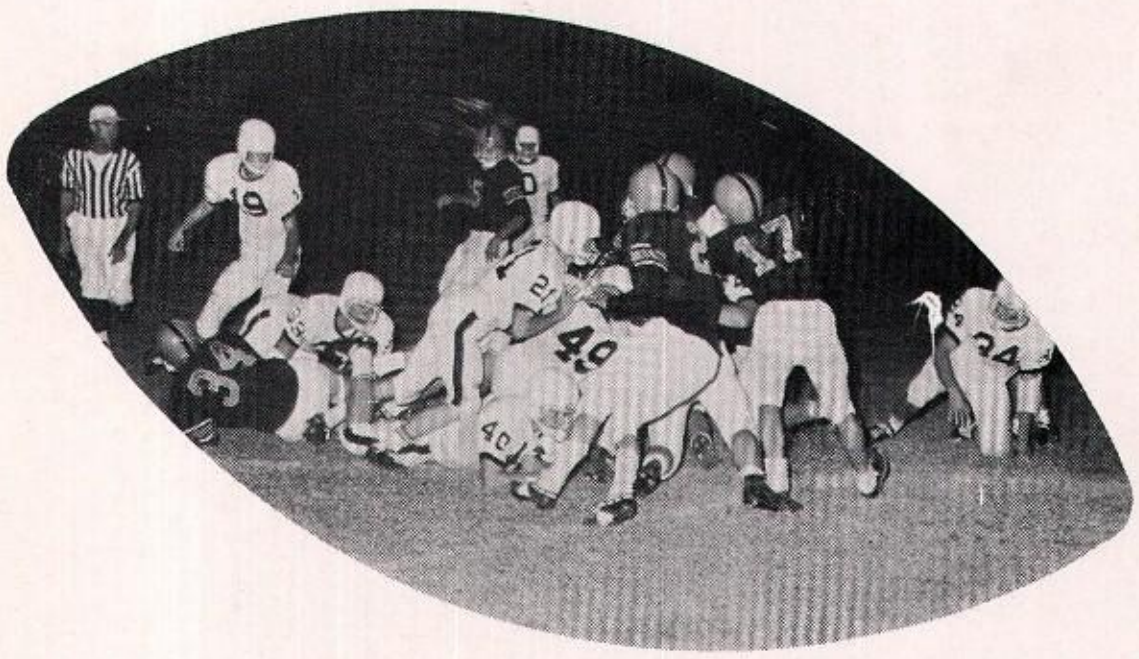
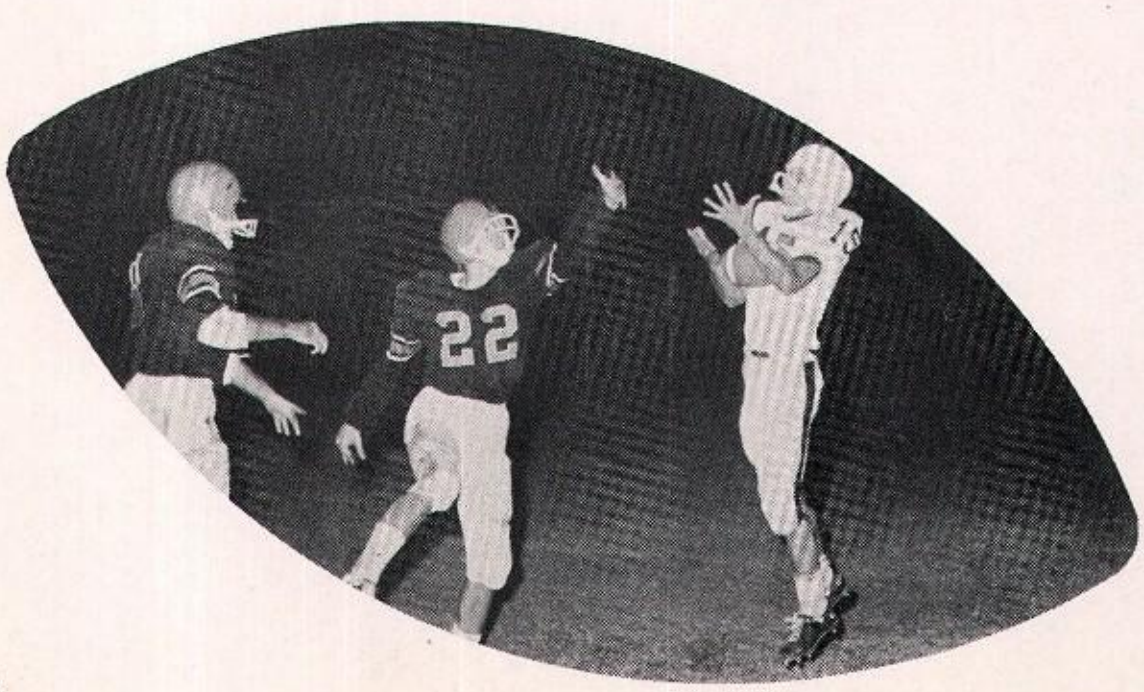
The Wasco Tigers, a compartively young team, finished the 1964 season with a 1-8-1 record. Their strongest points were their eagerness and desire to win. Although plagued by injuries and inexperience, their capabilities improved with each game, showing strong potential for the future.



Tiger halfback James, 38, drives around right end for short yardage against Tulare Western.

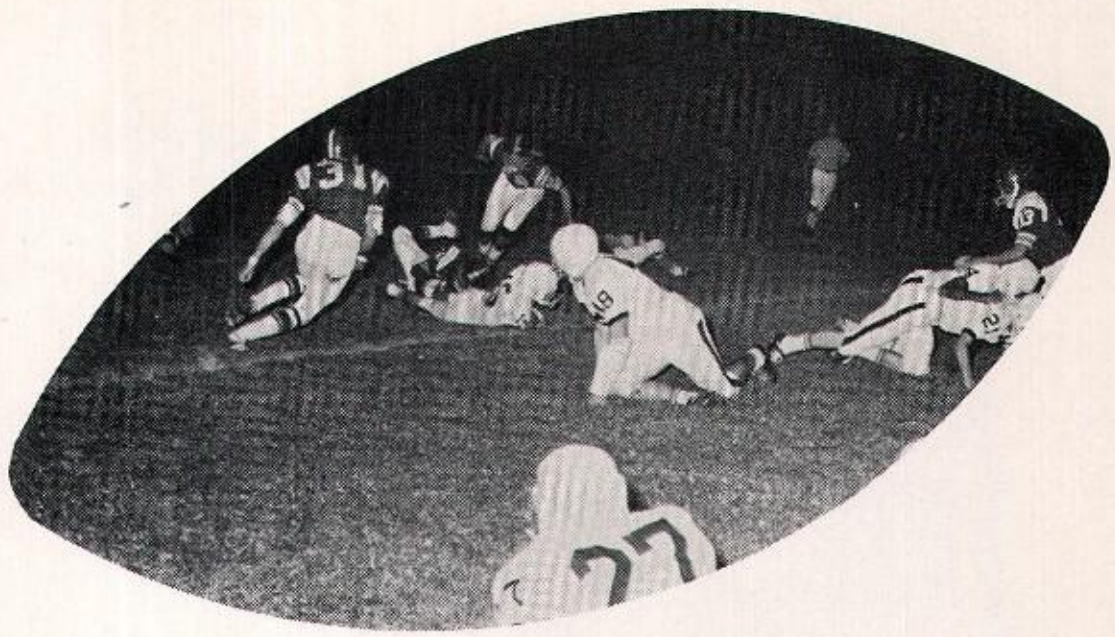


There's a tangled pile-up as Wasco scores against Coalinga.



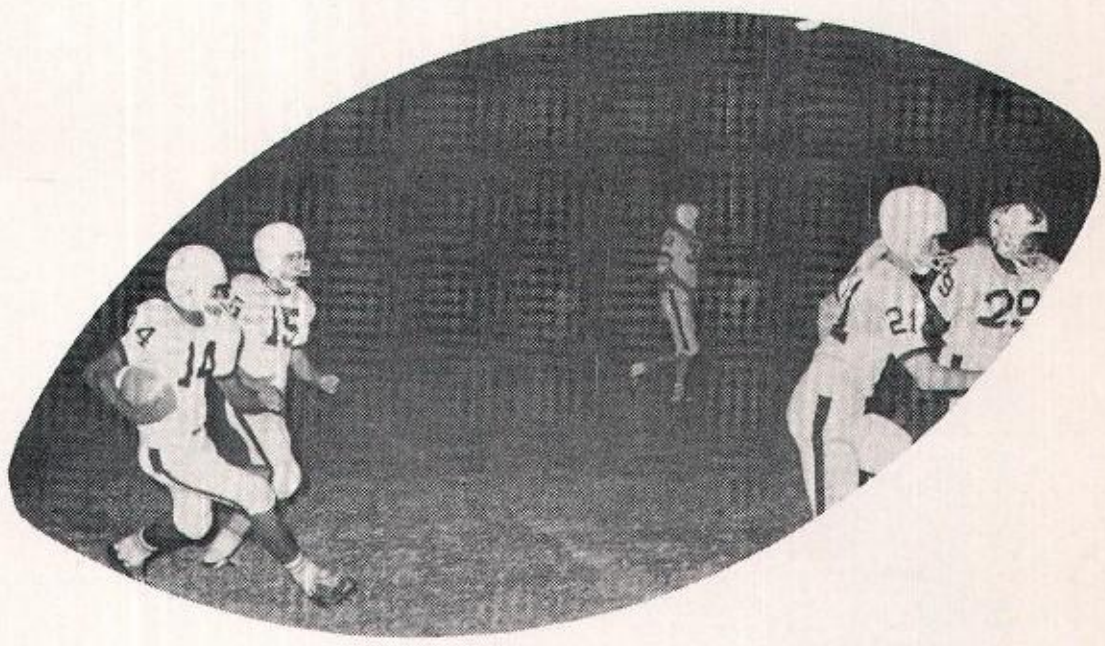
Coodey, 15, scores for Wasco behind two Coalinga defenders.

Action

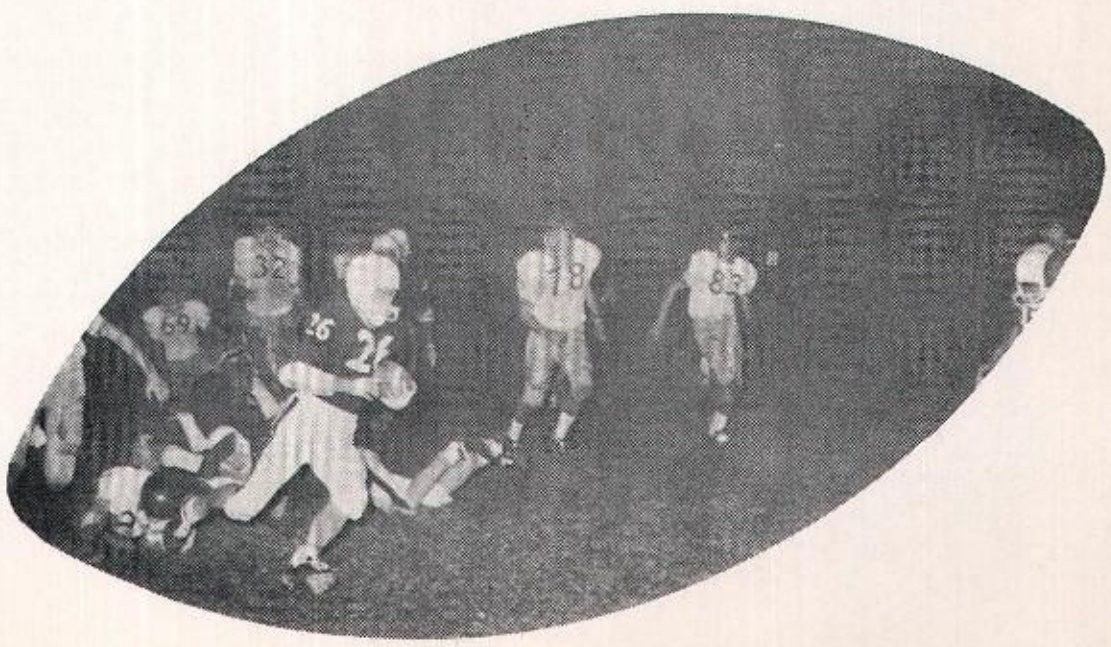


Coodey, 15, gets hit from behind as Tigers clear away tacklers downfield against Shafter.

James, 38, pulls a General down from behind with a bone-crushing tackle.



Jeffers. 14, looks downfield as blockers form around him.



Sherrill, 26, rounds end for another Tiger score.

Starting the season with a comparatively young squad, the Wasco Tigers played determined ball at all times. Sparked by a sophomore shooting ace, Lindsey James, who finished the season first in league scoring, Wasco proved to be a strong contender against more experienced teams.

The Cubs played superb ball all year and improved with each game. Lack of height, however, proved a big factor against their success and cost them too many games. The highlight of their season was the upset of the very strong Shafter Colonels.

Starting the season with no returning lettermen and a first string consisting of freshmen, the Wasco Kittens went on to win the league championship. They accomplished this feat through hard practice, brilliant teamwork and the skillful coaching of Mr. Johnson, which proved to be the deciding factor in several of their close games.

Cross Country

Cross Country is one of the most strenuous of the competitive sports. To finish a race one must run through a 1.8-mile course. Team members like Richard Arriaga, varsity captain, and Lester Acklin, most valuable runner, can cover this course in the spectacular times of 9:02 and 9:27, respectively. Freshman Gilbert Perez was the only member of the entire team to qualify for the Valley meet. To accomplish feats such as this requires overwhelming desire and an abundance of hard work.

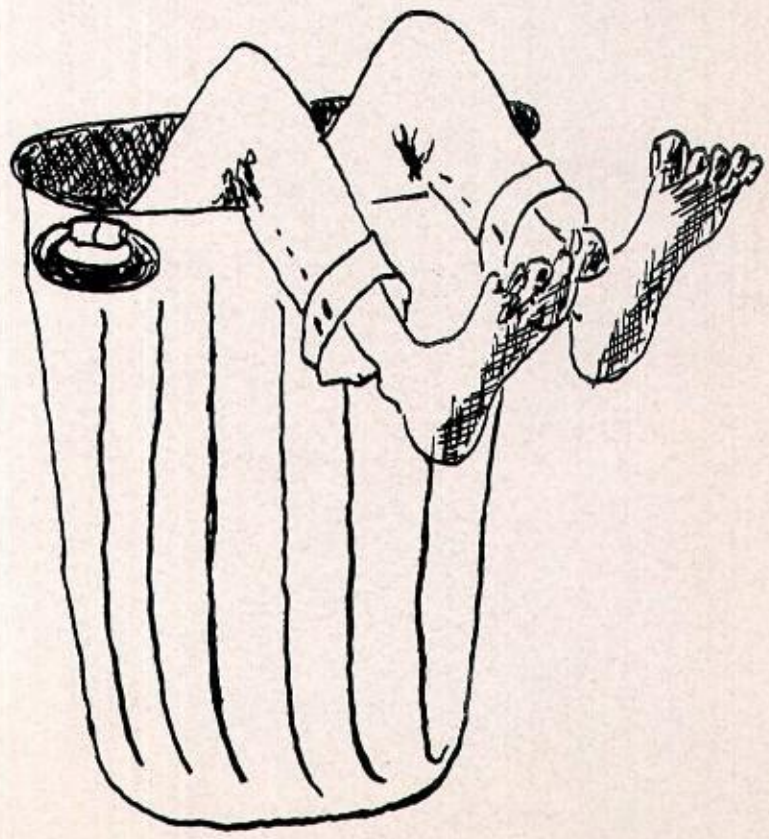
"Out to Lunch"



Dear Staff:

Many hours of your time and much of your energy have been exhausted in this annual But I hope you feel as I do—it has been very worthwhile. Our work is now completed and I'm sure that all of us can truthfully say we have gained a world of knowledge and experience.

Thank you:

Janet, for your dependability.

Lynn, for your willingness to take things home in the evenings.

Jennifer and Judy, for raising over $1500 worth of ads.

Pam, for getting things orderly.

Larry W., for the art work.

Larry C., for the good coverage of sports events.

Janet and Pat, for your assistance. (Good luck next year!)

Mr. Appel, for your many hours of proof-reading and also for your patience with me.

Thank you again for all your cooperation.

Always,

Bev

Phyllis

We had a pleasure
to have you around
Wasco for a while Lots
of luck in the future.
Hope you are having fun where you are going to school. Hope to see you sometime.

Hi! long time no see –
I sure miss ya this year.
I almost flunked without your help. We had two more lousy term papers. You certainly are a wonderful person. Stay that way. I want to wish you all the luck and happiness the world has to offer. You deserve no less. May God bless and keep you.
